

Béisbol: From the Barrios to the Big Leagues

Opening Reception

September 12th

5:30 pm

$5 general admission; MVC members free

Beisbol tells the story of the Mexican American baseball teams and leagues that were formed in the early part of the 20th century throughout the Central Coast.

Curators:

*Anna Rios Bermúdez, Curator of Collections,
Museum of Ventura County*

José M. Alamillo, Ph.D.

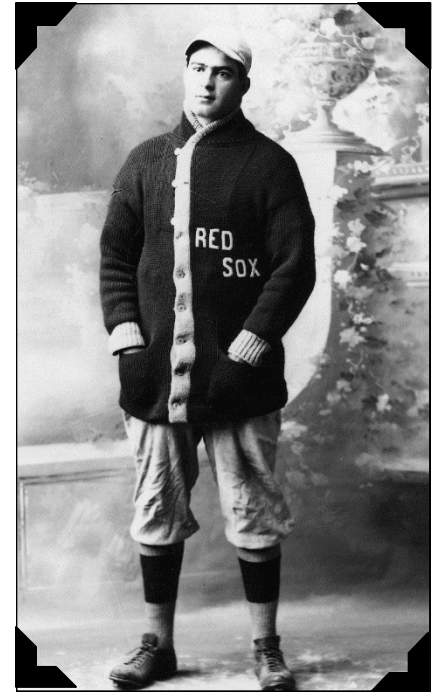

*Full Professor & Coordinator, Chicano/a Studies Program
CSU Channel Islands*

Above: The Oxnard Aces in Plaza Park in 1915; below, Ventura's own Charley Hall in his Red Sox team sweater, c.1909.

The Santa Paula Aztecas, above, in 1933, were a powerhouse team.

100 E. Main St.
Ventura, CA
(805) 653-0323
www.venturamuseum.org
Open Tuesday–Sunday
11 am to 5 pm

Admission:
$5.00 Adults (18 years & older)
$3.00 Seniors (65 and older)
Students & AAA members with ID,
$1.00 Children (17-6 years old)
Children 5 years old & younger are free.
First Sundays of every month are free (general admission) to the public.