

Instructionally Related Activities Presents

Primavera de la Raza

Calendar of Events Spring 2015

Por El Amor de La Cultura - For the Love of Culture

Saturday, February 7th (Open Feb. 7th-Mar. 1st) 11 a.m.-1 p.m.

Broome Library 1320

Join new Mexican artist Al Na'ir Lara and children's author Kathleen Contreras in an art exhibiton and book signing.

Monitoring Latina/o Progress:

A Demographic Approach by Dr. Luis Sanchez

Thursday, February 19th 6-8 p.m.

Santa Paula Library

Dr. Luis Sanchez will provide an overview of the Latino community and population changes at the national and local level.

Noche de Familia Banquet

Saturday, February 28th 5-8 p.m.

Malibu Hall 100

CI faculty and staff come together with CI students and their families to share about H.S.I. initiatives and campus resources to ensure student seccess and build trust with Latino families from the area.

Exhibition: A League of Their Own:

Mexican American Women in Baseball and Softball and their Struggle for Gender Equality

Panel Discussion & Ceremony: Wednesday, March 25th 2-4 p.m.

Broome Library 1320

This exhibition from March 2nd to April 4th tells the hidden story of Mexican American Women who overcame multiple barriers to play baseball and softball in the United States.

Art Exhibition:

Isabel Martínez: Un diálogo en arte y cultura

Reception: Thursday, March 5th 6-7 p.m.

(Open March 5th-April 4th)

Dialogue with Artista: Thursday, March 12th 3-6 p.m.

Napa Hall Art Gallery for both events

Understanding Disenfranchisement of Latino

Men and Boys by Dr. Aida Hurtado

Tuesday, March 10th 12-1:30 p.m.

Broome Library 1320

Aida Hurtado, UCSB Professor/Luis Leal Endowed Chair of Chicana/o Studies, will talk about her co-edited book Invisible No More: Understanding of Disenfranchisement of Latino Men and Boys.

iCurArte!: Healing Through Art Culture

by Artist Ruby Chacon

Monday, March 30th (Open April 5th-May 16th)

Broome Library 1320

Chicana/Latina Learning and Leadership:

Past and present by Vicki L. Ruiz

Wednesday, April 1st

Workshop on research and writing: 12-1:15 p.m.

Broome Library 1360

Lecture: 4-5:30 p.m.

Broome Library 1320

Mending Patriotism

Workshop: Wednesday, April 1st 12-2 p.m.

Broome Library 1360 (RSVP ONLY: pilar.pacheco@csuci.edu)

Participants contribute to an original quilt using clothes from migrants crossing the US border. The project aims to provide a space for learning and exchange around the issues of border-crossing, human migration, and national identity.

A Day of Service

Friday, April 3rd 8-3 p.m.

Prototypes (Provides services to women in recovery)

2150 North Victoria Ave. Oxnard, CA (RSVP ONLY: pilar.pacheco@csuci.edu)

Students will be taken by Roadrunner Shuttle to Prototypes to volunteer and work alongside the residents to help makeover their ground (weeding, raking, planting).

Si, Se Puede: Four Latina recent Math Ph.D's share their journeys

Wednesday, April 8th, El Dorado Hall 110

*Reception with refreshments 4-4:30 p.m.

Two 15-minute research overviews 4:30-5:10 p.m.

*Pannel 5:10-6:10 p.m.

Two 15-minute research overviews 6:20-7 p.m.

*No-host dinner at Tortillas Grill afterwards

Join four Latina recent PhDs to celebrate their accomplishments and learn how they made it in the world of mathematics.

*No math background required

Noche de Fiesta - Dinner & Musical Performance

featuring Grammy award winners La Santa Cecilia

Wednesday April 15th

Q&A Session with CHS & SPAN students 3:30-5 p.m.

Broome Library 1360

Musical Performance 6-8:30 p.m.

Malibu Hall 100

10th annual Noche de Fiesta. La Santa Cecilia is preforming their distinct sound of 'cultural latin-pop' music. A panel with the band and students from Spanish and Chicano Sutudies classes will take place.

Noche Literaria "El Canto de los Delfines"

Tuesday, April 21st 8-6 p.m.

Boome Library 1750

Inauguration of "El Canto de los Delfines" Spanish Journal. Selected students will be reading from their submissions to the first issue of creative writing journal.
margarita.lopez@csuci.edu

Self and Social Transformation: Student Presentations on Chicana/o Literature, Concientización, and Service Learning

Tuesday, May 5th & Thursday May 7th 12-1:15 p.m.

Broome Library 1756

Students' give final presentations in Dr. Guzman's ENG/CHS 535 class discussing a range of Chicano/a literary works and how it provided them with critical tools for self-realization and socialconsciousness.

Farmworker Immersion Project with VC CLUE

Friday, April 10th (RSVP ONLY: pilar.pacheco@csuci.edu) 8-3 p.m.

A program that places students in the community learning about farmworker rights and immigration issues. We will visit farmworkers, their families, homes, and visit local farms. Students will work in the field and have a group reflection.

California State University

INSTRUCTIONALLY
RELATED ACTIVITIES
CHANNEL
ISLANDS

For questions contact Jose Alamillo:
jose.alamillo@csuci.edu